

Advisory Board Appointed by Father Zanolar

In the future all infractions of the rules of the school will be dealt with by a disciplinary board composed of three members of the faculty and three students.

Faculty representatives appointed by the Rev. Alfred J. Zanolar, president of the college, are the Revs. Robert J. Stukenborg, Leonard J. Kostka, and Brother John Marling. The student council appointed John Thorpe, Pat A. McAvinchey, and Thomas E. Lynch to represent the students.

Father Sheeran Presides

The Rev. Joseph A. Sheeran, dean of students, presided at the first official meeting of the board, Feb. 16. According to Father Sheeran, the board is to offer advice on all disciplinary action, and also help formulate new policies.

All minor infractions will be handled by the board through the dean of students, office. In the event of a major infraction, the case will be examined by the board and then sent to the special faculty board for final decision.

New Pamphlet Guides Seniors In Finding Jobs

Bethlehem, Pa. (I.P.)—Easy manners and good grooming as well as technical ability and know-how play their part in helping a student land an attractive job in industry, judging by nine factors for successful interviews outlined by E. Robins Morgan, director of placement at Lehigh University, in a new booklet, "Senior Placement Information." Here are Morgan's points:

"Before entering an interview know something about the size of the company, its financial standing, the location of its principal plants, its products and their uses.

"Be well groomed. Your clothes need not be expensive, but they should be clean and otherwise presentable.

"Be cordial in greeting an interviewer. This is good business as well as good manners. You like a firm handshake and a genial smile—so does the interviewer.

"Be yourself. Affectations are readily discernible even to inexperienced persons and they do not give favorable impressions.

"Sit comfortably erect in your chair.

"Be at ease.

"Show your interest in the type of employment being offered.

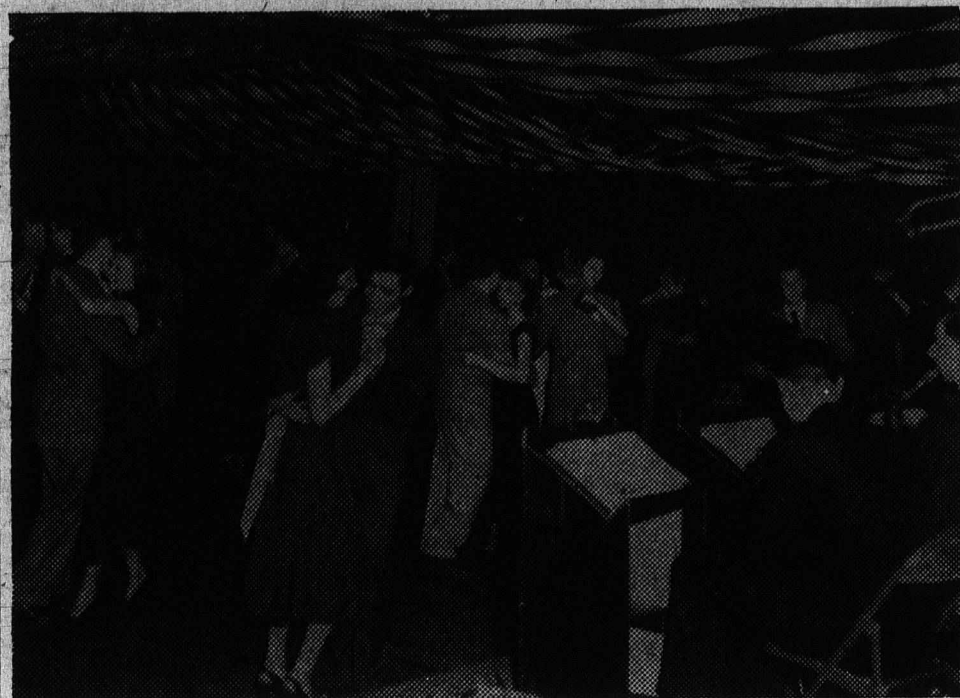

"Let your speech be articulate. The interviewer has the right to know what you are saying.

"To be cocky is inexcusable. It is not business-like, it is not courteous, and it is not profitable."

According to Morgan the three deciding factors in placement are character, ability and personality.

"The value of good character needs explanation to those only who do not possess it. A college man's ability will be gauged by scholastic standing, participation in extra-curricular activities, and a knowledge of current events."

Del Baker and Decorations Highlight Freshman Dance

Sixty-three couples attended the Freshman Dance, "Serenade in Blue" in the college fieldhouse, Feb. 19. Dancing was enjoyed from 9:00 until 12:00.

Three Colleges Show NFCCS Progress

St. Joseph's College . . . The Fort Wayne Regional Press Commission, located at St. Joseph's, is planning to release another News Letter in the near future.

The first letter, edited and published by Bob Daly and Jack Paonessa, was the first of its kind sent to regional schools. It is hoped that through the News Letter an assimilation of the N.F.C.C.S. activities on each regional campus will aid in establishing closer relations in the region.

St. Mary-of-the-Woods . . .

Approximately $1500 has been raised for Student Relief at St. Mary-of-the-Woods through the selling of tickets on an RCA Victor combination radio and record player . . . The Measuring Tape, a monthly newsletter, is also being published by the International Relations Commission and the Legislative Review Committee of St. Mary's. The Measuring Tape will be sent to all schools in the region and will endeavor to give the Catholic viewpoint on current international issues.

Aquinas College . . . Aquinas students are keeping N.F.C.C.S. before the eyes of the campus through an extensive publicity campaign of posters, bulletins, and news articles. Marcel Black has been appointed Press representative, and will report all N.F.C.C.S. activities of Aquinas to the Press Commission at St. Joseph's.

President Delivers Radio Sermons

A series of short sermons was delivered by the Rev. Alfred J. Zanolar, president of the college, on the "Morning Meditation" program over Radio Station WBAA, West Lafayette, last week.

Original Sin, Actual Sin, Sanctifying Grace, Heaven—the End of Man, and Prayer were the subjects of the five discourses.

Father Zanolar will appear in a second series of sermons over the same station in April or May.

Music was furnished by Del Baker and his orchestra, one of the better known bands in the Chicago area. It marked the second time that Baker had played at St. Joseph's; he appeared here for the first time at the 1946 Homecoming Hop.

Balloon Gifts

The decorating crew completely transformed the fieldhouse with a color pattern of blue and white streamers, balloons hanging from the ceiling, and soft lights. The balloons, containing gifts for the young ladies, were cut loose at midnight.

"Serenade in Blue" was the first social undertaking of the Freshman Class this year. Co-chairmen of the event were Al Schrauben, Bob Rausch and Don DeLave.

Relief Campaign Nets Over $1,000

The European Student Relief Drive committee estimated a net profit of over $1,000 from their past three-month drive to obtain funds for college students of war-torn European countries.

Cossack Chorus Proves Claim To U. S. Fame

Music lovers of St. Joseph's and vicinity were treated last night to one of the best programs presented in the college theatre to date. The Don Cossack Chorus, under the direction of Serge Jaroff, gave a thorough exhibition of the talents which have made them famous throughout the United States.

From the powerful opening hymn, Kastalsky's "Credo," through the nostalgic "Two Guitars," to the closing ballad, "The Regiment was Riding," the Cossacks showed great versatility and complete mastery of group harmony. Their sincerity and spontaneity gave a quality of freshness which is seldom found in comparative ensembles.

THE PROGRAM:

I
The Creed (Credo) . . . A. Kastalsky
Blessed Art Thou, O Lord . . .
P. Tchaikovsky
Ave Maria . . . Bach-Gounod
The Lord's Prayer . . . N. Kedroff
God, Save Thy People . . .
P. Tchesnokoff

II
Recollections of Tchaikovsky . . .
Arr. By C. Shvedoff
Berry Picking . . . Arr. By C. Shvedoff
The Sailors . . . Vilboa
Twelve Robbers . . . Arr. By S. Jaroff
In the Forest, They Say (Love Song) . . . Arr. By S. Jaroff

III
A Hazel Tree . . . Arr. by I. Dobrovin
Who Knows . . . Arr. by C. Shvedoff
On Saturday . . . Arr. by I. Dobrovin
Two Guitars . . . Arr. by C. Shvedoff
The Regiment was Riding . . .

Late results of the relief drive conducted by the local chapter of the N.F.C.C.S. show a total of $3,000 obtained through the drive. However, expenses of the campaign have cut the net profits down considerably.

Drive Closes Tomorrow

The drive does not officially close until tomorrow night, when the winners of the first-prize Chevrolet Sedan and second-prize Stromberg-Carlson radio-phonograph will be announced at half-time of the St. Joseph-Valparaiso basketball contest.

"Tickets sent to Alumni and friends of the college have paid the greatest dividends," said Joe McGrath, chairman of the drive. Student salesmen also sold tickets in their home towns, Rensselaer, and at last week's sectional basketball tourney held in the fieldhouse.

Prizes will also be given to the salesmen who have sold the highest number of books. The prizes include $50 for the highest seller, and $25 for the runner-up.

Combined Casts Delight Audience

A host of "first-nighters" greeted the Collegeville premiere of "I Remember Mama," Sunday night in the college auditorium. The three-act comedy was presented by the Columbian Players in conjunction with the Theater Guild of St. Xavier's College, Chicago, and was directed by Miss Helen Crowe.

The story is one of an immigrant Norwegian family that settles in San Francisco. The everyday incidents of this typical family are both humorous and heart rending.

The immediate family consists of Mama (Mary Boreczki), an unusual and resourceful woman; Papa (Joe Condich), the patient and easy-going father; Nels (Mike Lehnard), the oldest boy; Katrin (Renette Boniecki), the oldest daughter and "would-be" writer of the family; Christine (Colette Koehl), younger daughter; and Dagmar (Helen Lawson), the youngest daughter of the family.

A Gruff Uncle

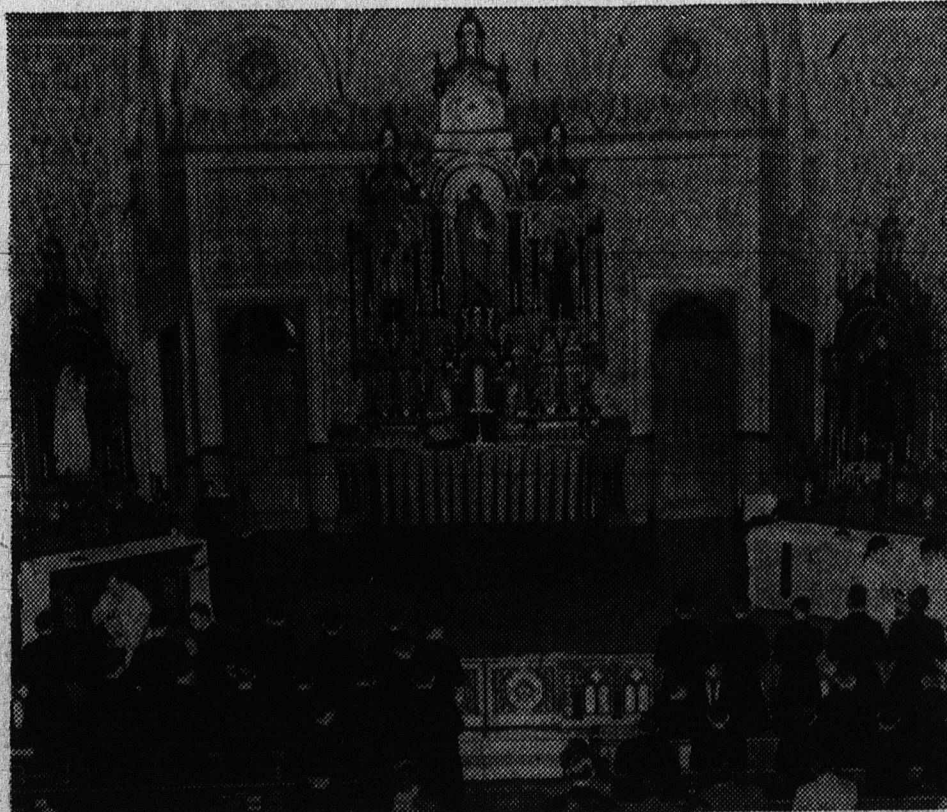

Lending to the plot of the story is Uncle Chris, (Jack Cummings) a gruff, old cripple with a heart of gold who is consistently scaring people with his uncontrolled voice and mannerisms.

Three aunts, Jenny (Ave Hayes), Sigrid (Shirley Ward), and Trina (Betty Riley) round out the family relatives. Jim Corrigan portrays an English actor living with the family, while Ron Humphrey adds the elements of love to the story through his portrayal of Mr. Thorkelson. The Doctor's part is carried by Don DeLave.

Condolence . . .

The sympathy of the faculty and student body is extended to Mr. Ralph Capuccilli upon the tragic death of his brother, Anthony, and to Father Joseph Smolar and his brother, Richard, upon the death of their father.

Oriental Rite Scene

Scene of the Oriental Rite Mass celebrated Feb. 13 in the College Chapel by the Rev. Paul Dano, assistant at St. Mary's Greek Catholic church of Whiting, Ind. In the Byzantine Rite Holy Communion is received under both species of bread and wine.

A Man's Home . . .

"Be it ever so humble, there's no place like home." A St. Joe student was heard to reply, upon hearing this familiar refrain, "Boy, you know!" When asked just why he had spoken so forcefully, he said, "Well, I guess it's like this. At home, nobody comes busting in without the least warning, nobody butts cigarettes on the floor, and nobody sprawls on a freshly-made bed, with dirty shoes. When Mom mops the floor, we don't dare walk around till it's dry, and when she decides to paint anything, we stay out of her way so as not to knock over the can or muss things up." Then he added, "Etcetera!"

Now all this sounds like a complaint to the effect that St. Joe, as a place to live, is quite distinct and almost the antithesis of home. Actually, a student could call St. Joe home, as he is here nine months out of the year, lives here and works here. He pays room rent just as other people pay house and apartment rent. Consequently, he has a right to expect others to respect his privacy, his belongings and all the contents of the room he has rented.

Which condition is prevalent on this campus, the one intimated by the words of the student as given above, or the sincere respect of an individual's possessions?

Each St. Joe man should ask himself that question. Many of the students have the right attitude, but also there are many who do not. Some will find that while their own rooms are well-kept and respected by others, yet they are themselves partly at fault for the unkempt appearance of their "buddy's" home.

It might be predicted that students whose rooms are always in good shape and whose visitors conduct themselves correctly, will do the best work on the average. As an example, one fellow who changed halls between semesters said, "There were so many guys coming in all the time and leaving the joint in an uproar that I just couldn't concentrate on studies." It seems that his "buddies," having worn out the welcome mat, proceeded to wear a path in the floor.

Spur O' the Moment

BY RALPH L. CLARK, JR.

MEN OR MACHINES

The late Franklin D. Roosevelt said: "Practical steps should be taken to make more available to children and youth through education the resources of religion as an important factor in the democratic way of life and in the development of personal and social integrity."

This statement substantiates the necessity of acknowledging God in order to preserve the religious and moral foundations of our country . . . foundations which are dropping lower and lower under governmental control of schools which continue their paganistic teaching of materialism, believing religion as something good for old women and nice to have around as a sugar-coating to ease the pagan conscience.

Too many Colleges and Universities today fail to recognize the man as an individual. They undertake the teaching of Economics, Politics, Sociology, and Philosophy as if they were pouring it into a machine, failing to recognize the individual man as made of body and soul.

What is education without the basis of religious and moral beliefs? The American "intelligensia" tends to be hypocritical when it rebukes Communistic Atheism, Marxian Socialism, and Fascism, but fails in its own educational facilities to develop this "personal and social integrity" so needed in today's world of misguided beliefs, caused by ignorance of the moral law.

All the early colleges of the United States (Dartmouth, Rutgers, Brown, Pennsylvania, Princeton, Columbia, Yale, and Harvard) were founded with a distinctly religious basis. But this religion has declined steadily in these institutions of higher learning because of the surrender of fundamental beliefs.

Only the Catholic Colleges and Universities remain with their fundamental beliefs and teachings. The Catholic Colleges and Universities continue to graduate man as man, ready to face the world and its problems; the non-religious school continues to teach man only the materiality of the world, all the while ignoring the most important factor . . . man, himself.

Church Urges Prayer, Action During Lent

BY UTAH CUMMINGS

Today the Catholic Church celebrates Ash Wednesday, the first day of the Holy Season of Lent. It is a time of recollection and of penance, in which the Church tries to renew the faith of her children in preparation for the greatest of her feasts, Easter.

She asks us to pray and do penance, to purge ourselves of the marks of evil, and to re-arm ourselves in order to better carry on our continuous war against our triple enemy the devil, the world, and the flesh.

Christ Leads Way

We are not alone in our preparations. The Church has given us the finest example possible. For our forty days of penance and fasting throughout this season, we may follow the path set forth by Our Lord, Himself. Jesus went through the same period of self-discipline during His retreat in the desert after John baptized Him.

He went without food or water, in order to prepare Himself for the trials He knew were ahead in His public life. He was tempted by the devil, who offered Him the triple temptations that beset us. Thus does Our Saviour go before us as an example.

Do Positive Actions

We fast and abstain during Lent in order to strengthen our souls and wills against the temptations of the world, but we must not stop there. We are urged to two other good works, also. Prayer and almsdeeds must be coupled with fast and abstinence to get the full benefit from the holy season.

Prayer, by which we raise ourselves to commune with God, helps to cleanse our souls and make us stronger in our position as children in the army of God. Almsgiving is the natural conclusion to the savings made by the observance of Lenten restrictions. It is thoroughly Christian to give to the poor, sharing privations during this season.

The observance of these few rules during the forty days we are now entering will shape our minds, strengthen our wills, and cleanse and fortify our souls; make us true members of the army of Christ, ready to participate in the beautiful feast of Easter.

New Committee To Act Against Bad Legislation

St. Louis, Mo.-(I.P.)-One of the chief objectives of the Association of American Colleges' new Commission on Minority Groups in Higher Education, to which the Rev. Paul C. Reinert, S.J., new president of St. Louis University, has been appointed, is to inaugurate a nation-wide campaign to prevent the enactment of coercive legislation against discrimination in the admission policies of colleges.

Although the members of the Commission were chosen because of their known non-discriminatory practices, they are of the opinion that it is unwise to attempt to eliminate discrimination through legislation because such legislation would recognize the principle of a greater degree of state control over colleges and universities than most educators are willing to recognize.

The fight against discrimination, Father Reinert stated, must be carried on through educational methods aimed at securing voluntary action on the part of offering institutions. It has been proposed that the Commission set up a national office to hear and judge cases of discriminatory practices.

DISC MISC

BY HOWIE CUMMINGS

Here is the second and, for the present, concluding installment on the Herman Herd by Frank Santschi:

"There are three other pre-ban Herman pressings floating around at present, but because of the ban it is difficult to determine which was cut first and to whom we should give credit for participation. I shall try to give you a short run-down on each disc, however, and list them in the order of probable cutting.

"Record No. 1 is a fine commercial type of thing called P.S., I Love You, done by the Herman vocalist, Mary Ann McCall. She shows the influence of her predecessor, Frances Wayne, but lets us know she has a few ideas of her own. On the whole it makes good listening. The flip side is a vocal by Woody, My Pal, Gonzales, which goes to show that even Herman can make mistakes.

USES CHOPIN THEME

"The second record is the kind that makes you say to yourself, 'Well, both sides are pretty good, but I don't know which is better,' so I'll call No Time the A side for purposes of designation only and say that Herman finally gets back into his vocal stride. The tune (to believe the label) is based on a theme by Chopin. Four Brothers, the B side, features the sax section, and again Don Lamond kicks them home.

"No. 3 is primarily a showcase for what is the most terrific trombone today, Bill Harris, with his rendition of the beautiful Everywhere. It serves as an announcement to all of jazzdom that Harris is back and that Herman's got him. The flip is a nice little instrumental, The Goof and I, which deserves a lot of praise in itself, but which is overshadowed by Everywhere.

"Of the eight sides mentioned above, Keen and Peachy is the best instrumental; P.S., I Love You, the best vocal; and Everywhere, the best solo.

WOODY CUTS WITH CAPITOL

"Woody has just recently signed with Capitol, forsaking Columbia in this new era of record making. His first and only record to date under the new label is a sterling thing called Lemon Drop which features a bop vocal by a group called The Choir (Terry Gibbs and Woody). Highlights of Lemon Drop are the unison runs of Terry Gibbs on the vibes and pianist Tony Aless. The flip, I Ain't Gonna Wait Too Long, is a vocal by Woody, reminiscent of Fan It, but having more body and better lyrics. Harris' soulful trom is also in evidence, alone worth the price of the record."

Well, readers, now you know. Frank Santschi will again grace this column at a later date. Meanwhile, if anyone else has a contrib worthy of all of us, why then, make me know it!

GAG BUSTERS

BY BEECH

Appetites come and appetites go, but the appetite belonging to Arthur Sarsfield "Sheriff" Brophy is one of the most prodigious this campus has seen in many a moon. If the food and the books are out of balance, it would be a good idea to put Art on the other end of the scale.

After a recent Monogram Club party, there were some unconsumed sandwiches and cake. Members could not decide whether to call out the marines or call for the sheriff. They finally agreed Brophy was the man for the job. . . . Art very helpfully ate the seven sandwiches and the six pieces of cake. . . . This was quite a feat in itself, but coupled with the fact that he had just finished a double helping at supper, his effort was tremendous.

It is rumored this gastronomic wizard has become irritable of late, because of the new ruling forbidding any one person to go through the chow line more than four times at one meal. . . . Truly old Sarsfield deserves the title "Monarch of the Mess."

Keller Riede gets credit for the prize saying of the week. It seems Jim Dolan, while filling out his summer school questionnaire, was kibitzed by Keller. . . . Jim wrote, "I do not plan to attend summer school." Riede said, "You'd better tell them what school you aren't going to attend, Jim."

It could be that spring is in the air. At any rate a group of students decided to commune with nature last week by chasing rabbits in the south corn-field. The idea was good, but the exercise proved too strenuous. . . . Let's try barking at the moon next time.

Of course if these nature-boys insist on cotton-tails, they can use an old Indian ruse which will eliminate all of the troublesome foot-work. Just hide behind a bush, and make a noise like a carrot. When the rabbit comes up to investigate, grab him.

Don Cooney is the latest authority on male etiquette. According to Don, it is not necessary for the man to walk on the outside of the woman, if the woman happens to be your niece. . . . Jim Beane thinks it's a good idea on rainy days, if there is danger of the man being splashed by passing cars. . . . At any rate intimate sources have revealed, if you see Cooney walking on the inside of the sidewalk, it is permissible, because the woman with him is his niece.

Who holds the record for the longest telephone call from St. Joseph's? Robert "Beverly" Lamkin . . . Lamkin talked to his girl for 24 minutes. This is a long time to whisper sweet nothings. Apparently the operator thought the same when she collected for the overtime. . . . Operator-Ooh la la, your bill is $4.45.

More sage advice . . . "Do unto others before they do it unto you."

First Child Born To Stang Couple

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. James Stang on the birth of an eight-pound son, Edward James, Feb. 21. The child is their first.

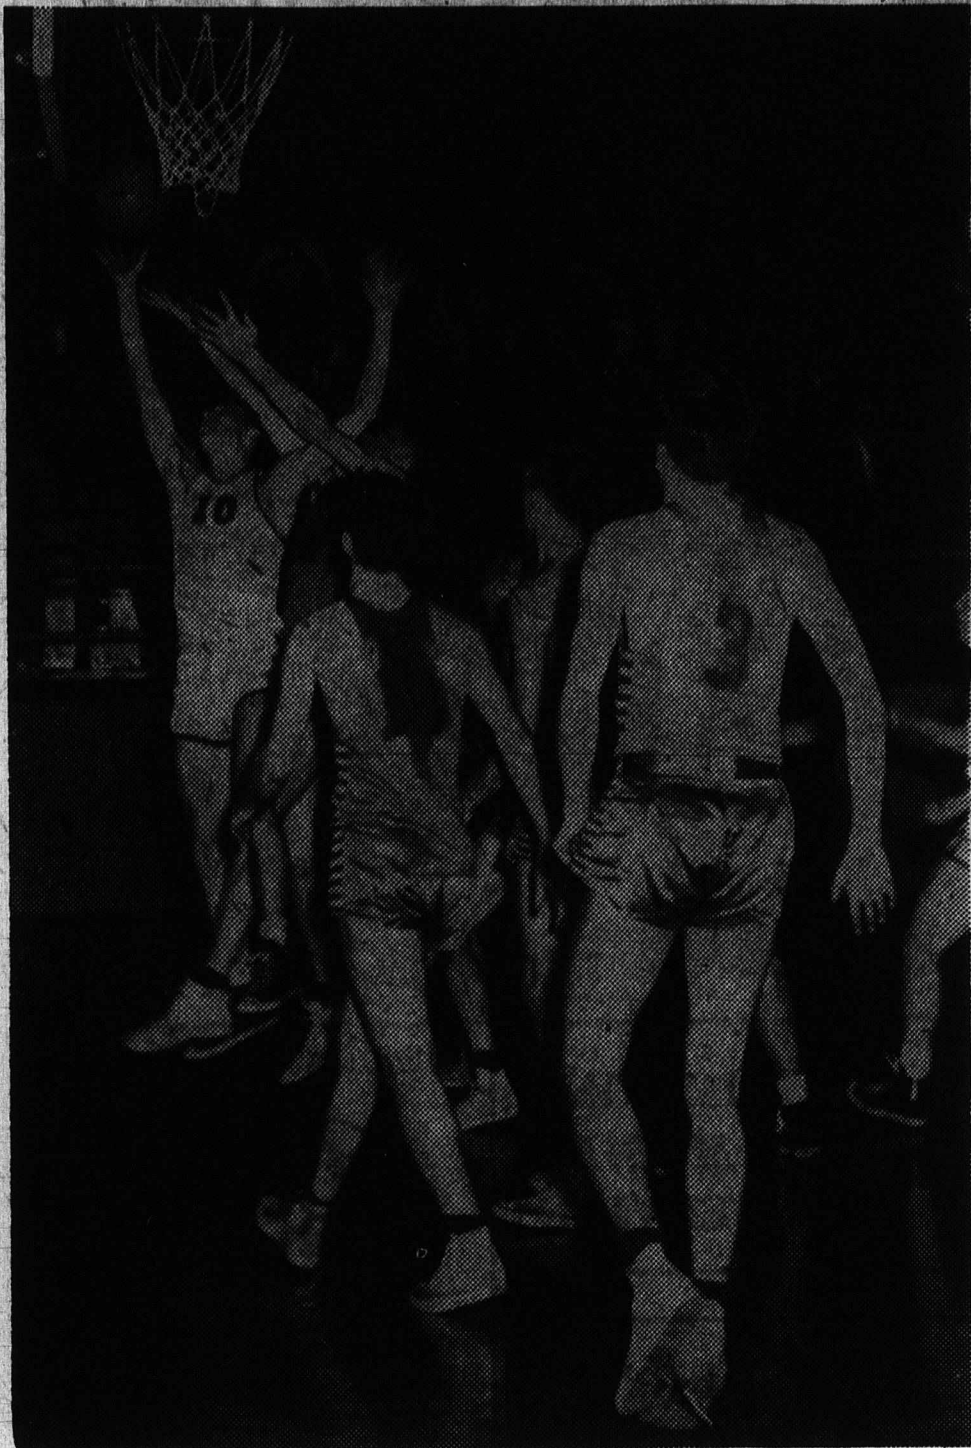

Both Mr. and Mrs. Stang hail from Dayton, Ohio but are now residing in Rensselaer. Mr. Stang is a senior attending St. Joseph's. Mrs. Stang is the former Carmelita Trick.

Rec Room Set-Up To Be Revamped

Action is being taken to rectify existing conditions of equipment in the recreation room of Raleigh Hall, it was disclosed following a meeting of the Student Council, Feb. 16.

Council members voted to take immediate steps to place the hall under student management in an effort to prevent further damage of facilities at the hands of careless and thoughtless users. Such a type of organization was in effect during the 1947-'48 school year, but was abandoned in favor of the honor system this year.

According to John Lucas, Council president from Gary, Ind., a Chicago firm has been contacted and plans for reconditioning of the rooms have been formulated. Lucas pointed out that the present set-up, which depends entirely upon the discretion of students, is inadequate. Despite numerous petitions from administrative officials and a public appeal published in a recent issue of STUFF, the maltreatment of recreational equipment has continued.

Following the completion of reconditioning, a new system of management will be effected. It will include a maintenance charge for use of equipment, and a regulation of the hours of business. Council officials appointed Roy Stone, Evansville junior, as manager.

"There will be no more broken cues, and during business hours I will have no friends," Stone said in accepting the appointment.

Stone, who will have complete charge of hiring and firing of personnel, indicated that employee salaries will come directly from proceeds.

Undergo Operations

Keller Riede, Louisville junior, and Tom Tysall, Gary junior, underwent minor surgical operations Monday morning, February 21, at St. Elizabeth's hospital, Lafayette.

Riede, shortstop on the St. Joe diamond squad, had a tumor removed from his right hand, and infectious matter was removed from Tysall's right elbow.

INTRAMURAL

BY JOE MOORE

The second half title of the Intramural basketball league in the "A" division was captured by the "J" Boys who tripped the first half champs, Paddy's Pigs, by a 33-30 score.

Paddy's Pigs, led by Bob Laney and Bob Doyle, jumped to an early lead in the first quarter, going ahead 14-5. The "J" Boys were unable to get the feel of the varsity court in the opening minutes and showed a listless type of ball playing.

The second quarter was practically a reproduction of the first with the Pigs lengthening their lead. They outscored the "J" Boys 7-6, and increased their lead to 22-11 at half time.

The Pigs defense fell apart as the second half began. Playing a championship type of ball, the "J" Boys came forging back to within one point of the Pigs as the third quarter ended, 23-22. While the "J" Boys were throwing in 11 points, the Pigs were held to a single point. Bud Greif and Wally Moore dropped in long two-handed set shots, important factors in the outcome of the contest.

Fourth quarter play was fast and furious with the "J" Boys connecting for 11 points, while their worthy opponents gathered seven. The score sea-sawed back and forth, with the "J" Boys going ahead with a minute to play and promptly freezing the ball until the last whistle. Final score 33-30.

The "J" Boys victory over the Paddy's Pigs in the second round forces a playoff game for the championship in the "A" league.

PUMAS DUMP RAVENS, LOSE TO ST. NORBERT

The Puma Growls...

BY TOM FEDEWA

Puma Cage Play Improved . . .

EMPLOYING a fast-breaking offensive effectively for the first time this season, the Pumas exhibited a brilliant brand of hardwood prowess in defeating Anderson-Wilson Inc. 81-61 on the Collegeville court Feb. 21 . . . The win cracked a six-game losing streak and re-established in the minds of fans the fact that the Cardinal and Purple cagers are capable of turning in a creditable account of themselves . . . Fans who witnessed the contest went away with the feeling that they had seen St. Joe basketball at its best . . . Accurate shooting, clever dribbling, effective use of the pivot, and instinctive play-making combined to provide the Pumas with a dauntless quintet . . . Jumping Johnny Wilson, despite his handicap, was the single factor that prevented the Anderson crew from suffering an even more humiliating defeat . . . The Ravens went into the contest with a record of 11 wins against eight losses and emerged licking the wounds of their worst defeat in two years . . . Jumping John's uncanny gymnastics and one-armed shooting antics were not enough to offset the Ravens' inability to cope with Puma aggressiveness . . . Wilson definitely favored his mending left elbow throughout the fracas and it was evident that he showed the affects of his 30-day lay-off . . . Local fans were deprived of seeing the Hoosier "jack-rabbit" at his best . . .

OUR OWN Jumping Jack Dwyer hooked, dribbled, and faked beautifully from the line to out-fox the talented Wilson . . . Dwyer's lightning-like fakes and rolling jump-pivot shots bewildered the Anderson center more than once . . . Captain Ray Patterson displayed a stellar brand of defense and contributed appreciably to the Pumas' 81 points with his usual one-hand push shot . . . "Chuckles" Barton was the big noise in the scoring department with an outstanding percentage of .500 the result of eight fielders out of 16 attempts . . . Peters hit eight out of 20 for .400, Bauman garnered a .444 on four out of nine, Wilz had two for nine and a .222, Patterson .389 on seven out of 18, Dwyer .285 on six out of 21, and Krodel hit one bucket in nine attempts before fouling out in the first stanza . . . The over-all team percentage was .333 . . . Anderson recorded a .240 mark.

Odds 'n Ends . . .

TOMORROW night's return encounter with Valparaiso will write finis to the 1948-'49 basketball slate . . . Out to avenge a 49-48 defeat suffered at the hands of the Crusaders earlier in the season, the Pumas should manage a victory . . . High-lighting the evening will be the drawing for the Chevrolet sedan and a console radio, top prizes in the European Student Relief fund contest . . . Intramural eliminations are moving along rapidly to weed out local champions for representation in the second annual Extra-mural tournaments to be held on the Collegeville campus March 19 . . . Angel Barrientos, defending Extra-mural table tennis titlist, experienced little difficulty in grabbing the campus crown for the second consecutive season and will be out to successfully defend his 1948 Midlands championship . . . The Rev. Edward Roof, athletic director, reports that the college will not officially sponsor a track squad this year . . . However, he pointed out that if individual aspirants desire competition, an effort will be made to obtain entries in meets and tournaments . . . Intramural officials are undecided as to the date of the Inter-hall basketball tournament . . . The event was originally scheduled for February 21, 22, and 23, but the DeMotte Sectional play-offs conflicted . . .

IN PASSING . . . THE PUMA GROWLS and says that some basketball referees have been out of uniform while officiating at local contests . . . He contends that lately the shirt stripes have been horizontal instead of vertical . . . 'Nuf said.

The Pigs won the first round with a record of seven wins and no losses, while the "J" Boys captured the second round with an identical record.

Final standings of the second round are as follows:

	W	L	Pct.
"J" Boys	7	0	1.000
Paddy's Pigs	6	1	.857
Hot Shots	5	2	.714
Rinky Dinks	4	3	.571
Brewers	3	4	.428
Crusaders	2	5	.286
Hungry Five	1	6	.143
Gears	0	7	.000

Individual statistics in the second round show that Bob Horky of the Paddy's Pigs was the leading scorer with a 13.8 point average in six games. Bob Laney, also of the Pigs, was high in points with 85. The leading scores follow:

	G	TP	Avg.
Horky	6	82	13.8
Laney	7	85	12.1
Mangan	7	80	11.4
Gorman	7	75	10.7
Stahl	7	75	10.7
Delaney	5	53	10.6

In the "B" division of the Intramural basketball league, there is a two-way tie for first place between the Goody Gum Shoes and the Collegeville Campus Trotters. Both have identical records of 12 wins against two losses, necessitating a playoff. No definite date has been set as yet. Runnerup was the Gung Ho entry with a record of 11 wins against three losses. Because of the numerous entries in the "B" league only one round was played. The standings are as follows:

	W	L	Pct.
Goody Gum Shoes	12	2	.857
Campus Trotters	12	2	.857
Gung Ho	11	3	.786
Jr. Globe Trotters	10	4	.714
Whiz Kids	10	4	.714
Sharp Shooters	10	4	.714
Pygmies	9	5	.643
Aces	8	6	.571
Ingots	8	6	.571
Frisky Five	8	6	.571
Towners	7	7	.500
Royals	6	8	.429
Basketeers	6	8	.429
Jerks	4	10	.286
Gizmos	0	14	.000

Individual statistics compiled for the season in the "B" league shows that Ed Pluth, guard on the Frisky Five entry, was crowned

To End Season With Valpo U. Here Thursday

BY BILL FOX

Displaying the form which carried them to success in six of their first seven games, St. Joe snapped a six-game losing string Feb. 21, when they buried Anderson's Ravens beneath an 81-61 count on the Collegeville court.

It was an altogether different Puma team from the one which had failed in 10 of its last 11 out-

The Pumas complete their 1948-'49 cage season tomorrow evening, when they entertain Valparaiso's Crusaders in the Collegeville fieldhouse.

The Cosgrovemen displayed a sharp passing game which consistently offered them shots from short range. Better-than-average accuracy and a rapid fast break kept the Ravens reeling on their heels and prevented them from initiating an organized attack.

Wilson Handicapped

The local cagers easily gained their eighth triumph of the season despite the presence of "Jumping" Johnny Wilson in the Anderson lineup. Wilson, one of the outstanding scorers in the nation, injured his elbow several weeks ago and had been sidelined ever since. The rubber-legged young Negro played all but three minutes, although his left hand was practically useless, and tossed in an assortment of pivot shots, one handers, and tip-ins for a total of 19 points.

ST. NORBERT'S TOPS PUMAS

Sole possession of last place in the Midlands Conference was guaranteed St. Joe, Feb. 19, when the Pumas were tripped by St. Norbert's 70-68 in a nip and tuck overtime struggle in the college fieldhouse. Little Roman Kosnar's seventh field goal, a one-handed rebound pitch in the last five seconds of the overtime session, dealt the home squad its fifth Midlands setback against one victory. The Knight's league record was improved to a 3-3 mark.

The score stood at 60-56 in favor of St. Norbert with less than a minute of regulation time remaining. One handers by Captain Ray Patterson and Don Tesmond knotted the count at 60 apiece as the 40-minute point was Jack Dwyer (10) jumps high to drop in a precious bucket in the St. Norbert encounter here, Feb. 10. The Pumas lost the contest in heart-breaking fashion, 70-68.

Rec Room Set-Up To Be Revamped

Action is being taken to rectify existing conditions of equipment in the recreation room of Raleigh Hall, it was disclosed following a meeting of the Student Council, Feb. 16.

Council members voted to take immediate steps to place the hall under student management in an effort to prevent further damage of facilities at the hands of careless and thoughtless users. Such a type of organization was in effect during the 1947-'48 school year, but was abandoned in favor of the honor system this year.

According to John Lucas, Council president from Gary, Ind., a Chicago firm has been contacted and plans for reconditioning of the rooms have been formulated. Lucas pointed out that the present set-up, which depends entirely upon the discretion of students, is inadequate. Despite numerous petitions from administrative officials and a public appeal published in a recent issue of STUFF, the maltreatment of recreational equipment has continued.

Following the completion of reconditioning, a new system of management will be effected. It will include a maintenance charge for use of equipment, and a regulation of the hours of business. Council officials appointed Roy Stone, Evansville junior, as manager.

"There will be no more broken cues, and during business hours I will have no friends," Stone said in accepting the appointment.

Stone, who will have complete charge of hiring and firing of personnel, indicated that employee salaries will come directly from proceeds.

Undergo Operations

Keller Riede, Louisville junior, and Tom Tysall, Gary junior, underwent minor surgical operations Monday morning, February 21, at St. Elizabeth's hospital, Lafayette.

Riede, shortstop on the St. Joe diamond squad, had a tumor removed from his right hand, and infectious matter was removed from Tysall's right elbow.

INTRAMURAL

BY JOE MOORE

The second half title of the Intramural basketball league in the "A" division was captured by the "J" Boys who tripped the first half champs, Paddy's Pigs, by a 33-30 score.

Paddy's Pigs, led by Bob Laney and Bob Doyle, jumped to an early lead in the first quarter, going ahead 14-5. The "J" Boys were unable to get the feel of the varsity court in the opening minutes and showed a listless type of ball playing.

The second quarter was practically a reproduction of the first with the Pigs lengthening their lead. They outscored the "J" Boys 7-6, and increased their lead to 22-11 at half time.

Defense Cracks
The Pigs defense fell apart as the second half began. Playing a championship type of ball, the "J" Boys came forging back to within one point of the Pigs as the third quarter ended, 23-22. While the "J" Boys were throwing in 11 points, the Pigs were held to a single point. Bud Greif and Wally Moore dropped in long two-handed set shots, important factors in the outcome of the contest.

Fourth quarter play was fast and furious with the "J" Boys connecting for 11 points, while their worthy opponents gathered seven. The score sea-sawed back and forth, with the "J" Boys going ahead with a minute to play and promptly freezing the ball until the last whistle. Final score 33-30.

The "J" Boys victory over the Paddy's Pigs in the second round forces a playoff game for the championship in the "A" league.

PUMAS DUMP RAVENS, LOSE TO ST. NORBERT

The Puma Growls...

BY TOM FEDEWA

Puma Cage Play Improved . . .

EMPLOYING a fast-breaking offensive effectively for the first time this season, the Pumas exhibited a brilliant brand of hardwood prowess in defeating Anderson-Wilson Inc. 81-61 on the Collegeville court Feb. 21 . . . The win cracked a six-game losing streak and re-established in the minds of fans the fact that the Cardinal and Purple cagers are capable of turning in a creditable account of themselves . . . Fans who witnessed the contest went away with the feeling that they had seen St. Joe basketball at its best . . . Accurate shooting, clever dribbling, effective use of the pivot, and instinctive play-making combined to provide the Pumas with a dauntless quintet . . . Jumping Johnny Wilson, despite his handicap, was the single factor that prevented the Anderson crew from suffering an even more humiliating defeat . . . The Ravens went into the contest with a record of 11 wins against eight losses and emerged licking the wounds of their worst defeat in two years . . . Jumping John's uncanny gymnastics and one-armed shooting antics were not enough to offset the Ravens' inability to cope with Puma aggressiveness . . . Wilson definitely favored his mending left elbow throughout the fracas and it was evident that he showed the affects of his 30-day lay-off . . . Local fans were deprived of seeing the Hoosier "jack-rabbit" at his best . . .

OUR OWN Jumping Jack Dwyer hooked, dribbled, and faked beautifully from the line to out-fox the talented Wilson . . . Dwyer's lightning-like fakes and rolling jump-pivot shots bewildered the Anderson center more than once . . . Captain Ray Patterson displayed a stellar brand of defense and contributed appreciably to the Pumas' 81 points with his usual one-hand push shot . . . "Chuckles" Barton was the big noise in the scoring department with an outstanding percentage of .500 the result of eight fielders out of 16 attempts . . . Peters hit eight out of 20 for .400, Bauman garnered a .444 on four out of nine, Wilz had two for nine and a .222, Patterson .389 on seven out of 18, Dwyer .285 on six out of 21, and Krodell hit one bucket in nine attempts before fouling out in the first stanza . . . The over-all team percentage was .333 . . . Anderson recorded a .240 mark.

Odds 'n Ends . . .

TOMORROW night's return encounter with Valparaiso will write finish to the 1948-'49 basketball slate . . . Out to avenge a 49-48 defeat suffered at the hands of the Crusaders earlier in the season, the Pumas should manage a victory . . . High-lighting the evening will be the drawing for the Chevrolet sedan and a console radio, top prizes in the European Student Relief fund contest . . . Intramural eliminations are moving along rapidly to weed out local champions for representation in the second annual Extra-mural tournaments to be held on the Collegeville campus March 19 . . . Angel Barrientos, defending Extra-mural table tennis titlist, experienced little difficulty in grabbing the campus crown for the second consecutive season and will be out to successfully defend his 1948 Midlands championship . . . The Rev. Edward Roof, athletic director, reports that the college will not officially sponsor a track squad this year . . . However, he pointed out that if individual aspirants desire competition, an effort will be made to obtain entries in meets and tournaments . . . Intramural officials are undecided as to the date of the Inter-hall basketball tournament . . . The event was originally scheduled for February 21, 22, and 23, but the DeMotte Sectional play-offs conflicted . . .

IN PASSING . . . The PUMA GROWLS and says that some basketball referees have been out of uniform while officiating at local contests . . . He contends that lately the shirt stripes have been horizontal instead of vertical . . . 'Nuf said.

The Pigs won the first round with a record of seven wins and no losses, while the "J" Boys captured the second round with an identical record.

Final standings of the second round are as follows:

	W	L	Pct.
"J" Boys	7	0	1.000
Paddy's Pigs	6	1	.857
Hot Shots	5	2	.714
Rinky Dinks	4	3	.571
Brewers	3	4	.428
Crusaders	2	5	.286
Hungry Five	1	6	.143
Gears	0	7	.000

Individual statistics in the second round show that Bob Horky of the Paddy's Pigs was the leading scorer with a 13.8 point average in six games. Bob Laney, also of the Pigs, was high in points with 85. The leading scores follow:

	G	TP	Avg.
Horky	6	82	13.8
Laney	7	85	12.1
Mangan	7	80	11.4
Gorman	7	75	10.7
Stahl	7	75	10.7
Delaney	5	53	10.6

In the "B" division of the Intramural basketball league, there is a two-way tie for first place between the Goody Gum Shoes and the Collegeville Campus Trotters. Both have identical records of 12 wins against two losses, necessitating a playoff. No definite date has been set as yet. Runnerup was the Gung Ho entry with a record of 11 wins against three losses. Because of the numerous entries in the "B" league only one round was played. The standings are as follows:

	W	L	Pct.
Goody Gum Shoes	12	2	.857
Campus Trotters	12	2	.857
Gung Ho	11	3	.786
Jr. Globe Trotters	10	4	.714
Whiz Kids	10	4	.714
Sharp Shooters	10	4	.714

Prof. Tonner in 31st Year As Music Department Head

BY HUGH SCHADLE

Since the fall of 1918 the work of the St. Joseph's Music Department has rested in the capable hands of efficient Professor Paul H. Tonner, the typical man of music.

In the course of his musical career he has composed some seven Masses, 40 motets, and numerous pieces for organ and piano. These works have merited acceptance by several of the country's leading publishing houses.

Wins Recognition

The Professor won honorable mention in the Swift Male Chorus contest of 1926, and had his name listed in the Bruce Publishing Company's book of "Twentieth Century Catholic Music." The latter is a treatise on elements contributing to modern day musical development.

Professor Tonner was born in Germany where he studied at the State Music School of Treves. He came to America in 1911, obtaining a degree from the Chicago Conservatory of Music. He later spent seven years in Iowa as an organist before coming to St. Joseph's.

Latest Works

During the past year, Professor Tonner has completed a Mass in honor of Our Lady of Fatima, three Lenten choruses for mixed voices, a vocal solo, and a musical arrangement for mixed voices. His most recent composition is a number called "The Perpetuum Mobile Polka"—an arrangement for band which will be presented in the spring concert.

Regarding the future the Professor's plans were simple. His intention is to "go on working and writing my music." But he neglected to add, "and continue doing a great job of it!"

reached. The two squads traded baskets during the five-minute extra period until the visitors snared a 68-66 lead with only 30 seconds to go. A long two-handed set shot by Paul Bauman once again deadlocked the contest. A Norbert desperation shot missed connections a few seconds later, but Kosnar pushed in the rebound from the free throw circle to settle the issue.

Campus Artists Paint Rooms

"If it moves, salute it! If it doesn't move, paint it!" This old army adage is being taken literally by the men of distinction on the Collegeville campus.

A big run on the paint department of the campus warehouse ended in the discovery of several hopeful Michaelangelos, who plunged deep into the business of changing their room walls from conventional cream to deep green.

Several rooms in Seifert and Gaspar are already sporting the "new look" and the army of green-dabbed brush welders is growing steadily.

Junior Forward

THEY'RE AS GOOD AS GONE!

—This husky junior, still thrilled over his lovely Christmas present, weighs 200 lbs. and stands 6'3" tall. He was an all-sectional from St. Paul High in Marion, Ind.

—Chuck, who is lost without his cheaters, has to wear a special pair while on the court.

"Chuckles" is a fine rebounder as well as a cool, workmanlike defensive star. He does his best work when the pressure is on. He refuses to be flustered.
